Approved Changes for the Class of 2016

- 150-hour definition of a credit is removed and substituted with the following non time-based definition: "Successful completion of the subject area content expectations or guidelines developed by the state, per written district policy."
- Two-For-One with required district reciprocity. (1 CTE-equivalent course = 1 credit = 2 requirements). Students may earn one credit and satisfy two graduation requirements (one academic and one career and technical) by completing a career and technical course determined by a district to be equivalent to an academic core course. Students will still need to earn the state minimum number of credits.
- Washington State History and Government is now a non-credit requirement that must be successfully passed and noted on the student transcript that the requirement has been met.
- Within the current 20-credit framework, the following credit changes are made:
  - Increase English from 3 to 4 credits
  - Increase social studies from 2.5 to 3 credits, including .5 credits of civics
  - Designate .5 credit of health (while retaining 1.5 credits of fitness)
  - Decrease elective credits by 1.5

How Can Districts Prepare?

- Define what a credit will mean in the district
- Compare local requirements to the proposed new state requirements--What is the same? What's different?
- Find out what courses your students are already taking
- Start thinking about how to incorporate the HSBP in middle school
- Look at the connections between middle and high school—Can students earn high school credit in district middle schools? What does the district do to prepare students for the transition to high school?
- Consider adopting a competency-based credit policy for world languages (see WSSDA for sample policy and procedures)
- Review availability of CTE-equivalent courses
