

Hello,
my name is Gada M. Ahmed

High School: I attended Franklin high school, where a friend encouraged me to explore Core Plus Aerospace because I've always been drawn to working with my hands. I also took Running Start classes at Seattle Central College and Green River College.

Post-High School: Immediately after finishing Core Plus Aerospace, Boeing offered me a job. The work at Boeing excited me, so I accepted the offer. I'm currently finishing a course requirement for an Aviation Maintenance Technical position offered through and paid for by Boeing.

Career Goals: My goal is to obtain my Aeronautics and Astronautics Degree from the University of Washington and attain additional pilot ratings to be a test pilot at Boeing.

DETAILS

Age: 19

My Background: I was born in Ethiopia and raised in Kenya. When I was 16, my family moved to the U.S.

Where I Live: Seattle

Advice: Investigate courses like Core Plus Aerospace early and learn more about career opportunities that interest you.
